20th October 2017

Edition: Autumn 7

Dear Parent/Carers,

It really is hard to believe we are breaking up for the half term holiday today. The children continue to work hard and make us proud everyday. We look forward to meeting with you on 8th November to discuss their progress during Parents' Afternoon.

Thank you to all Reception Parents who completed the 'Settling in Survey' during the Stay and Play Day. Your views are very important to us and results will be shared after half term.

Sporting Achievements Well done to the Year 5/6 football team (Joe Timmins, Jamie Walker, Daniel Witter, Paul Littlemore, Alfie Shaw, Michael Taylor, Joel Lindsay, Jay Harris + Stephen Cooper) who beat New Park 8-3 at Broadgreen School. The team showed great sportsmanship and superb skills.

Parents' Afternoon for Years 1-6 Appointment letters will be sent out on Monday, 30th October. Meetings will take place from 1.30pm to 6.25pm (last appointment).

Wishing you all a wonderful, well deserved half term holiday

Mrs Gough

Things to do with the children during half term:

Liverpool Museums are hosting several events during the week.

Merseyside Maritime Museum

On October 21st children can make a colourful animal mask inspired by the 'Seized! The Border and Customs Gallery'.

Inspired by the same exhibition, children can get a taste of the training for Rummage Officers, as they search the ship to see if they can spot any signs of smuggling, that's on October 22nd.

Also on October 21st, children can take on a simple challenge to see if they could be a river pilot – navigating the ships on the River Mersey.

International Slavery Museum

On October 22nd this museum is hosting an event about African Empires, children can find out about the amazing civilisations in West Africa.

Speke Hall

From Saturday, October 21st the next chapter of Enchanted Speke unfolds where you can explore the Hansel and Gretel trail and see if you can spot the witch.

Sefton Park

The Spooky Welly Walk returns once again this year on Saturday, 21st October from 11am – 5pm. Follow a fun packed route through Sefton Park with your little cherubs and discover over 25 activities for all the family including Halloween train, pumpkin patch, fairground rides and puddle jumping
