

Musician of the Month

Dame Vera Lynn

Dame Vera Lynn was Britain's wartime Forces' Sweetheart, and remained one of the country's most potent symbols of resilience and hope.

With songs such as 'We'll Meet Again' and 'The White Cliffs of Dover,' she inspired both troops abroad and civilians at home during World War Two.

As Britain's cities came under attack, her wistful songs, with their messages of yearning and optimism, were heard in millions of British homes.

Musician of the Month

